

The music and messages of K-Love radio are positive so that I may be more positive in my life. If I affect one person in a more better way, how multiplied is this by all the listeners. We don't need more ads for "stuff" to make us feel better. And we don't need more explicit song material. We need encouragement!